ACADEMICS

(Right) Mr. Lynn Jones teaches English I and II. Mr. Jones' room is easily recognized by all his colorful maps and the many plants thriving under his care. (Right Center) Miss Susan Weikel is the Special Resources teacher at our high school. She and Miss Cole are the co-sponsors of the Mineralettes, the precision drill team. (Left Center) Mr. Jim Squier is coaching J. V. football and Freshman Basketball in addition to his duties as Math teacher. He is also interested in soccer. This is Mr. Squier's first year at M.C.H.S. (Bottom) Mr. Mark Metzler is the Chemistry, Physics, and General Science teacher. He is Athletic Director and also coaches the Golf Team. Here students discuss the phenomenon of gravitation effects upon heavenly bodies.

Top Left
Ms. Cole is the French teacher. As well as this being her first year teaching it was the first year M.C.H.S. offered a course in French. She also teaches two classes in Spanish. Extracurricular activities include precision dance team, the Mineraletts, and Pep Club.
Bottom
Mrs. Kellough teaches English I and II to Freshman and Sophomores. During the year they read such classics as GREAT EXPECTATIONS by Charles Dickens and THE PEARL by John Steinbeck. Of course, parts of speech must be included each year.

Top
3/19th of Mr. Ferrel's teaching career has been at M.C.H.S. He teaches Math, numbers, Geometry, figures, and Trigonometric functions each day.
Bottom
The Librarian, Mr. Bill Bray, is responsible for volumes of books, magazines, film strips, records, and cassettes that must be checked out and in to 500 students and 35 staff members. He also is instrumental in seeing that floats are entered in the Nevada Day Parade.

HOMECOMING

There should be no shortage of M. C. H. S. spirit. To help out is the newest edition, The Mineralettes. (right) They perform at most athletic events. (Middle) The Serpent marching Band also helps out with the spirit. The band gets the students in the mood. (Bottom) Of course spirit would not be complete without the Cheerleaders. They lead the students in cheers and chants to keep the spirit high throughout the game.

PRISONER OF SECOND AVENUE

The Prisoner of Second Avenue. Comedy. Neil Simon. Mel is a well-paid executive of a company which has suddenly hit the skids. Mel gets the ax. His wife takes a tob to tide them over, then she is sacked. One thing after another goes wrong and Mel does the only thing left for him to do: He has a nervous breakdown. It is on recovery that we come to esteem him all the more. For Mel and his wife and people like them have the resilience, the gift to survive.

Countdown

Ten little Indians
Standing in a line
One asked the question
"Isn't this land mine?"
No one had an answer
Left were only nine.

Nine little Indians
Standing tall and straight
One asked the question,
"Who'll decide my fate?"
No one had an answer
Left were only eight.

Eight little Indians
Looking up to Heaven
One asked the question
"Who are my brethren?"
No one had an answer
Left were only seven.

Seven little Indians
Few left now to pick
One asked the question
"Who will heal our sick?"
No one had an answer
Left were only six.

Six little Indians
How did they survive?
One asked the question
"How shall we stay alive?"
No one had an answer
Left were only five.

Five little Indians
Puzzled at the law
One asked the question
"Can we take much more?"
No one had an answer
Left were only four.

Four little Indians
Stand for man to see
One asked the question,
"Who will set us free?"
No one had an answer
Left were only three.

Three little Indians
Why are there so few
One asked the question
"What are we to do?"
No one had an answer
Left were only two.

Two little Indians,
Standing in the sun
One asked the question,
"What has mankind done?"
No one had an answer
Left was only one.

One little Indian
In His hand a gun
Asks the fatal question,
"Where else can I run?"
No one had an answer
And then . . .

NATIONAL SCHOOL ASSEMBLIES

National school assemblies are when different people come with different talents.

They travel all over the country to different schools. This is the best assembly in 1975 school year.

Teachers & students participated with the expertise tramplinst to make the assembly more personal & real for Hawthorne.

Congratulations to the
